

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to air a
political hit piece
about the presidential challenger, just days before the election, is an outrage.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This so-called documentary is not
in the public interest, it is in
the narrow political and economic
interest of the owners of Sinclair Broadcasting. It is a clear violation of their liscensing
agreement. Do not let them air this piece! If they do
air it, their right to broadcast should be permanently
revoked. The use of the public airwaves
is a trust. Don't let them get away
with violating this trust in such a
blatant, egregious
and harmful manner.

Sincerely, Jessica
Evans
